

PSYCHOSIS

Psychosis is a mental health problem during which a person has lost contact with reality.

There is a severe disturbance in thinking, emotion and behavior

Schizophrenia is a common psychosis

The person's thoughts and perceptions become distorted

The person may have delusions- false beliefs

The person may have hallucinations- hearing voices or seeing objects not real

The person will experience social withdrawal

The person will have thinking difficulties.